

Finite fields and the search for exotic subfactors and tensor categories

Terry Gannon
University of Alberta

This talk discusses how characteristic p techniques can simplify considerably the construction and classification of fusion categories (associated to subfactors or not) and modular fusion categories over $\mathbb{C}$.