

Some topics of recent interest in commutative harmonic analysis

Tony Carbery

We review progress on some recent topics in commutative harmonic analysis -- specifically,

Mizohata--Takeuchi-type weighted inequalities for the Fourier transform, and a quasi-abstract approach to multilinear Kakeya problems -- which at least have the potential to be considered in non-commutative settings