

Categorical half twist

Špela Špenko

We define half spherical objects that induce (categorical) half twists. We give examples, in the context of the topological Fukaya category of a surface, where we show that the categorical half twist coincides with the geometric half twist, and in the context of divisors in smooth quasi-projective varieties. This is joint work with Alexander Polishchuk and Michel Van den Bergh.