

Distributive lattices of thick subcategories

Greg Stevenson

Given a triangulated category one can associate to it the complete lattice of its thick subcategories. There is no reason in general for this lattice to be distributive, but it can happen. I'll discuss what one can say about distributivity in various contexts.