

The geometry of global representations

Tobias Barthel

Inspired by global homotopy theory, a global representation consists of compatible collections of representations for finite groups belonging to a family. In this talk, we will describe joint work in progress with Barrero, Pol, Strickland, and Williamson in which we study the tensor-triangular geometry of global representations