

Discrete Beta ensembles and Nekrasov's equations

Alice Guionnet

Discrete Beta ensembles describe in particular the distribution of horizontal tilings on a vertical line of lozenges tilings of a domain obtained by gluing trapezoids. We will discuss how to analyze such distributions, in particular to study the fluctuations of linear statistics, with an emphasis on the multi-cut case, corresponding to lozenges tilings of domains with frozen regions.