

Discretisation and independent resolutions of ample groupoids

Xin Li

In this talk, I will present a general framework for understanding and computing topological K-theory for reduced C^* -algebras of ample groupoids, based on two main ideas, discretisation and independent resolutions. I will introduce these two ideas, discuss concrete examples and explain some applications. This is based on joint work with Alistair Miller.