

Machine construction and exploration of twisted connected sum G2 manifolds

Elli Heyes

We construct a new dataset of 7-dimensional twisted connected sum G2 manifolds using the tops construction and investigate their geography. In addition, we demonstrate that machine-learning methods can identify matching pairs beyond those satisfying the standard trivial gluing conditions, enabling the discovery and generation of new G2 geometries.