

On definable groups in generic differential expansions of certain geometric theories of fields

Françoise Point

We investigate algebraic properties of definable groups in generic differential expansions of certain geometric theories T of fields of characteristic 0 . We mainly concentrate on differential expansions of 0 -minimal theories. But we also consider the cases when T is the theory of a pseudo-finite field of characteristic 0 or of an henselian valued field of characteristic 0 .