

Which complex analytic functions are Pfaffian?

James Freitag

In this talk, we will talk about the possibility of giving a differential algebraic classification of which functions are Pfaffian. We'll explain some obstructions arising from differential Galois theory as well as some arising from the geometry of order one differential equations.