Formal languages and physical systems

Matilde Marcolli

I will illustrate how formal languages and an associated category theoretic framework can help modeling physical systems, with focus on spin chains, quasicrystals, integrable systems and certain TQFTs. The talk is based on joint work with Francesca Fernandes and with Luisa Boateng.